Trip itinerary subject to change slightly due to unforeseen circumstances and availability when booked

September 13, 2009 Afternoon flight to Cape Town after saying farewell to those departing for U.S. Check into your luxury hotel, The Victoria and Alfred, located on the Cape Town Waterfront.

September 14, 2009 After breakfast enjoy a drive along the Peninsula Coast with charming villages, and arrive in time for a special calamari lunch at Chapman’s Peak Hotel. Continue the drive to Cape Point, looking west you can see the southwesternmost point of Africa. Late afternoon brings an additional treat in Simon’s Town at Boulder Beach where you can enjoy the penguins of the Cape.

September 15, 2009 Today you have choices: visit Robben Island where Nelson Mandela was imprisoned, shopping at Cape Town’s wonderful stores, take a tour of the local township, visit the South African Art Museum and/or The Bushman History Museum; tour the world famous aquarium or a day excursion to Stellenbosch’s famous vineyards for wine tasting.

September 16, 2009 Explore the “Mother City” and (weather permitting) take a cable car ride to the top of Table Mountain offering panoramic views of Cape Town. Afternoon visit with a local Artist.

September 17, 2009 Depart for U.S.
